BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS

American Library Association To Assume Responsibility For Supplying Cantonments — Mason County Library Will Assist in Collecting the Books for the Soldiers.

If you cannot fight at the front, you can send a book to the man you are sending to the front to do your fighting for you. The government has asked the American Library Association to assume responsibility for supplying the camps and cantonments with reading material. Every group of soldiers, small as well as large, is to have books. The Public Library in this city has been asked to get donations of books and magazines in this county. These will be sent to the various camps and cantonments throughout the country and will be made available to the soldiers, either directly, or through such agencies as have facilities for distribution of books.

If you will write in each book your name and address, the soldier who reads it will know that someone in Maysville and Mason county is his friend and stands ready to help him.

The following is suggested as to the books and magazines desired: Poorly printed, uninteresting, obviously out-of-date books, are not worth shipping to the men. Type should be good and clear and the books in fair condition.

Books of good stories will be wanted most, books of adventure, sea stories, detective stories, historical novels and collections of short stories, especially humorous ones. Such authors as Kipling, Doyle, McCutcheon, O'Henry, Stockton, Brandless, Tarkington, Hopkinson Smith, Oppenheim, etc., have been found popular authors with men. Good poetry and drama can be utilized.

All the men must be helped by these libraries. Some of them have not established reading habits. Some of the books must therefore be light and easily read.

Foreign language study books, especially French grammar and dictionaries, are much needed—possibly more than any other nonfiction books. In one camp nearly one-fifth of the men are studying French. They should have easy readers and stories besides their text books.

Books of travel, biography and history, especially lives of heroes and travels in the countries at war.

Technical books on aviation, wireless, telegraphy, submarines, automobiles, signaling, first aid and hygiene, drawing and lettering.

Ethical books on patriotism, courage, good citizenship, with ample nonsectarian devotional books.

Fresh, attractive magazines are also desired—such as American, Century, Harper's, Everybody's, Popular Mechanics, Popular Science Monthly, Scientific American, Saturday Evening Post, etc. None over two years old should be included.

The material is needed at once. Why not select today the books which you are willing to give? Do not give worthless, unattractive books, but some of your good, fresh interesting and valuable ones.

Send the books and magazines to the Public Library between the hours of 8 and 5 o'clock upon any week day. If you cannot send the books and magazines, notify the librarian either by telephone or mail, and they will be called for. Phone 339.

SUIT TO SETTLE ESTATE

Yesterday in the Mason Circuit Court Thomas L. Ewan, administrator of the estate of Mary E. McIntire, deceased, through his attorneys, B. S. Grannis and J. M. McIntire, filed suit against Florence Griffin, Porter Griffin, Mary W. Wyatt, John D. SUIT TO RECEIVE $53.51 ON NOTE

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday Owen Griffith filed suit against Eligha Applegate to recover $53.51 due on a promissory note dated July 16, 1917. The note is secured by a mortgage on a Columbus buggy purchased of Mike Brown. Plaintiff states that said buggy has materially depreciated in value since the execution of the mortgage and was insufficient to satisfy the debt, interest and costs and would lack $40 in the payment thereof. Plaintiff further states that defendant was about to dispose of his property with fraudulent intent to cheat and that he was about to remove his property out of the state, not leaving enough to satisfy the debt. Wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant for his debt, interest and costs; that the buggy be sold and the money received applied to the debt, and to have an order of attachment for the sum of $40 and for general and all proper relief. The suit was filed by Attorney A. D. Cole.

$5,500 CARGO OF MUSSEL SHELLS ON WAY TO DOVER FACTORY

One of the largest cargoes of mussel shells taken down the Ohio river was tied up here Tuesday. Captain W. M. Morrison, of Manchester, is the owner of the cargo, which amounts to 151 tons. He expects to take on about 20 more tons between here and Manchester. The 151 tons were gathered between here and Gallipolis within a week. The cargo is valued at $5500. The shells are sold to a button manufacturer at Dover, Ky. The cargo in barges is being towed by the gasoline boat Mountain Belle. Captain Morrison has about 150 small boats engaged in the mussel shell business.

ONLY ONE COMMISSIONER FROM EACH DISTRICT TO BE VOTED FOR

Many voters throughout the county are of the opinion that three commissioners must be voted for at the primary election on Saturday. This is a mistake. W. Holton Key, the candidate from District No. 1 had no opposition and has been given a certificate of nomination and therefore his name will not appear upon the ballot, leaving only two commissioners to be voted for. A. L. Glascock and J. T. Holton are the candidates from district No. 2, and W. E. Pyles and W. H. Wilson from District No. 3. Vote for one man from each district.

He will have his headquarters at the Powell house.

HAND BADLY BRUISED

Kenneth, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Hunt of Wall street, had his right hand painfully bruised Wednesday afternoon when he dropped the iron grating of a cellar hole on it. He dropped a nickel into the cellar in front of E. E. Clark's repair establishment on Market street and in attempting to get out the grating slipped and caught his hand. No bones were broken but the hand was very seriously mashed and bruised. He was taken to the office of the Mason County Health League on Court street, where Miss Ida Couch, the nurse, cleaned and bandaged the injured hand.

BOLD YOUNG HIGHWAYMAN

Chief of Police James Mackey is investigating the case of a little colored boy who several days ago stopped a little white girl on East Second street just below Commerce, and took from her a small amount of money. Although the money taken was very little the chief thinks it best to investigate the matter and let the colored boy know that such practices can not continue. If he were allowed to proceed in a small way it would only be a matter of a short while until he would plan something bigger.

THREE PASS EXAMINATION

Messrs. Beecher Holliday, Eugene McNamara and Fred M. Morgan were the only ones from this city to pass the examination to enter the officers' training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. Mr. Holliday is above the age for the first draft and is married, while Mr. McNamara is under the age limit. Both are to be commended for their patriotism at this time when the country is in need of good men to command the recruits who will be called from time to time.

LITTLE GIRL HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Ina Pearl, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Jones, was struck by an automobile driven by a Mrs. Myers of Mt. Carmel while riding on a bicycle on Limestone street yesterday morning, but was not seriously injured owing to the fact that the machine was being driven slowly. The little girl rode directly in front of the auto and was knocked from her wheel, receiving a few slight bruises about the arms, and a big scare.

THE QUICKSANDS OF CENSORSHIP

It is in no light spirit, assuredly no shallow appraisal of the big stake involved, that the newspapers generally view with misgiving the imposition of a cable censorship.

Nor are they narrow in their view of the officials who impose it. When the smoke of friction and irritation clears away, it will be found that the solid newspaper interests back every step taken by the government in the defense of the national safety, in the protection of our fighting forces abroad, or about to go abroad.

It is only when censorship becomes a cheap and arbitrary thing, an idle and unintelligent interference in what it is in war times more of a public function than a private business, that newspaper men protest. They know that in England Lord Northcliffe had an historic row with officialdom over the censorship, and it was not Northcliffe, at things considered, who came out second best. He overthrew two cabinets and it was he who revealed Kitchener's blunders to the public and forced him to leave the war office.

If the cable censorship is reasonable and intelligent, there will be no complaint. Obviously, there can be none. Success or failure in the function is entirely in the hands of the censor himself. Treating the newspapers as necessary evils is not the way to put the censorship on a satisfactory basis. They are waspish often, stinging and goading many officials who would like to see them done away with. There is no more conspicuous failure of the Wilson Cabinet—no clearer indication of its essential mediocrity—than its inability to "get along" with newspaper men. In war times mediocrity shows up like a sore thumb.

The President himself, and the whole war organization, is the real loser in these constant bickerings which crop up between the newspapers and the public functionaries. A disgruntled press is not a war asset, but a war liability. It ought not to be held at arm's length as a poor relation, as a hapless Cinderella in the organization of the country in a great enterprise. Such treatment is a boomerang to those who would try to impose it.—Washington Herald.

A WORLD-CONQUERING HABIT

It is no longer true that chewing gum is a habit peculiar to the United States. It is now reported that European, Asiatic and even African jaws have been set to work and are increasingly busy. American chewing gum has followed the flag to Hawaii, Panama and the Philippines. It is found under Chinese labels; it has made its way into every South American port; it has invaded the interior of Africa and reached the South Sea Islands. It may not yet be employed as a means to help fill the aching void left by short rations in Germany, but it is known to have become a popular refreshment throughout the length of the trenches of the allies. It provides no real nourishment and drains too much saliva into the stomach, but it seems to furnish a balm for strained nerves and a vent for restlessness. Friends claim that it is an aid to digestion as well.

An unsightly habit it is, and of more than doubtful utility it may be, but it goes steadily on its world-conquering way. In 1914 France imported only $736 worth of American chewing gum and England only $90,183 worth, but during the first nine months of this fiscal year France's purchases amounted to $90,201 and England's to $582,294—a vast increase said to be due to the comfort and enjoyment that our chewing gum has carried to the long allied battle line. More than a million dollars worth of this American commodity will reach foreign countries before the end of this year and a doubling of exports is expected for next year. When aroused prohibitionists add it to their outlawed list and thus advertise it the more foreign consumption of this confection will doubtless increase more rapidly still.

LUCKY ENEMY ALIENS

The Germans, acknowledged past masters in the business of stirring up national rage, with their "Hymn of Hate" denouncing England as a memorable example, may now indeed be enticement a more intense hatred of America, as is reported, but nevertheless some of them appear to be able to tell the truth about us. For example, a correspondent of the Frankfort Zeitung, in writing of the consideration with which German in the United States were treated after the declaration of war with Germany, says:

"Those who have been in other countries at the outbreak of our war must consider America as a refreshing idyl. A foreign subject, nevertheless free; he is without rights, yet master of his banking account."

Whether this admission, remarkable indeed considering its source will convince Germans generally is open to question. The people who looted Belgium, gutting that country of its substance from end to end, would naturally be expected to scoff skeptically at an "idyl" of this sort. This true story is more likely to appeal through its "refreshing" contrast to the fleeing citizens of Belgium and Northern France as they mourn their vanished freedom and lost bank accounts. The correspondent of the Frankfort paper may share in Germany's boasted contempt of American power on the battle front, but he reveals a sneaking admiration for our generosity and idealism.

FOR AMERICA FIRST

An English publication appearing in London, gives praise to our commercial attaché, Julian Arnold, assigned to Peking, China, saying: "He is under no misapprehension as to what patriotism means; to him it means doing the utmost that lies in him to benefit American industry, to push forward the sale of productions of American factories, and to see that all Americans are employed when the end of the war causes a cessation of war orders and a slump in the world's production."

Apparently Mr. Arnold is the right man for the job of commercial attaché. His conception of his duties is in striking contrast to that of the secretary to the commercial attaché in Argentina who, probably with the authority of his superior, seems to have taken up the agency for manufacturers of Argentine cheese and trying to find the largest market possible for that product in the United States.

It is not so long since Henry Ford was working to get Europe's boys out of the trenches by Christmas and now he is doing his considerable bit to get America's boys in them by early fall. There's never any telling what the whirling of time will bring about.

ANNOYING SYMPTOMS

How Heat Flashes, Dizzy Spells and other Bad Feelings at Change of Life may be Relieved.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the change of life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness.

Should Wear the Flare
John Smoot and wife, of this city, are entitled to the banner, so far as we know. They have three sons and all three of them are now serving Uncle Sam in the army. There may be others who have done as well, but we do not know them.

Dogs Make a Killing
On Friday last M. C. Saunders had a car of lambs ready for shipment from here but was unable to get a car that day. He put the lambs in the pasture of Charles Foster, just east of town, and that night a lot of dogs got busy and killed 10 of them. They were valued at $11 each, which is not high at the present price of lambs. Pity they couldn't get the hides of the dogs that did the work.

An Old Soldier Boy
Second Lieutenant John R. Stratton, a native of this county, had served his 30 years in the regular U. S. army and had been retired before the present war broke out. Seeing that Uncle Sam needed his services he at once came forward for service and was given a commission and when he goes to the front it will be with a Captain's commission.

That Rotten Parole System
Another illustration of the glaring unwisdom of the parole system of this State is furnished from Bracken county. Some two years ago one Elisha Hughes was sent to the pen from Mason county for shooting at a couple of boys in Maysville and wounding one slightly. Recently he was paroled and returned to his home in Bracken county, and on Saturday night he was brought to Maysville by the Sheriff of Bracken and lodged in jail for safe-keeping, on a charge of killing a negro man by cutting him in the head with a grubs hook. If he had been allowed to serve out his term this tragedy would not have occurred. He felt that if he could get out of trouble so easily once he could do it again. Let it once be known that the sentence of the court means something and men will be more careful not to get into trouble.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE RECEIVES MANY LETTERS TELLING OF SLACKERS

Washington, August 1.—Letters pouring into the Department of Justice from every section of the country at the rate of 100 to 200 a day are reporting men who failed to register for the draft. A special corps of investigators and clerks is handling the reports, forwarding them to the proper officials throughout the country and recording the results.

Thus far it has been found that the information in a large percentage of the letters has been correct and as a result of such voluntary aid to the Government hundreds of slackers have been placed on the registration rolls. The letters come from all classes of persons, some of them anonymous and a large percentage of them being from women.

MOWER PARK CAMPMETING

The Mower/Park Campmeeting will begin Thursday evening, August 2, and will close Sunday morning, August 5. Revs. A. F. Felts and E. P. Hall, both of Covington, will have charge. The best of singers will be present during the meeting, which promises to be one of the best ever held at the park. The park is located 3½ miles south of Manchester, Ky., in Lewis county. It is high and dry, well shaded and an ideal place to rest as well as to enjoy the best of religious services.

Rev. Felts was pastor for four years of the Forest Avenue M. E. Church, this city, while Rev. Hall is well known here as the evangelist who conducted a very successful revival meeting at the Forest Avenue Church several years ago.

THE "GOOD PAL" MANAGER IS THE SORT THAT PLEASES

Does it pay to be one of the boys while you are manager of a big league baseball club? That is the question many of the fans are asking and the answer seems to be in favor of the manager who hobbles with his men, writes Bud in the Pittsburg Leader.

The Cincinnati team when it was under manager after manager was always a team that could not get up in the race. The team was always to be found away down in the last occupying a position so low that they did not have a chance to even get into the first division.

Under Christy Mathewson the team has changed from a poor second division outfit to a pennant contender and they are only a short distance behind the leaders in the pennant chase.

Christy Mathewson always has been a fellow. He does not hold his players off at arm's distance while he talks to them. He gathers the boys about him and gets them to play the game his way and the result is that the men are fighting hard for "Big Six."

Matty seems to be the miracle man in the big league race this year and with his players being his pals it is certain that they will do the best they can to bring the Reds into the championship.

This same kind of treatment would be good for the Pirates. Matty proved it and Miller Huggins has also done the same thing. The Cincinnati and St. Louis teams that have never been the fighting organizations at this time of the baseball year are up front fighting it out, while some of the other teams that have been rated higher are still in the lower places huddling to hold the positions they occupy.

Being a friend of your men has proved to be worth while, not only in baseball, but in other lines, and the men under you are certain to do better work when they feel that the fellow who is bossing them around is a good fellow and willing to help the players if the players help him.

THE HORSE TO HIS DRIVER IN SUMMER

If a horse could talk he would have many things to say to his driver in summer. He would say:

"Water me often when the heat is intense, a little at a time if I am warm; don't water me too soon after I have eaten, and always at night when I have eaten my hay."

"When the sun is hot let me breathe once in a while in the shade of some house or tree. Anything upon my head, to keep off the sun, is bad for me unless it is kept wet, or

WOULD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Forty thousand benefited people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 40,000 tongues sound glad tidings to say Maysville sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Maysville case. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

John J. Bramel, bookkeeper, Walnut street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and in fact, I attribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was in 1902 that I was suffering a great deal. After long use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I became well and had no bad effects for many years. Recently, however, I noticed my kidneys were not acting right and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble and I didn't lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chaslor's Drug Store. They again gave me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful medicine."

Mr. Bramel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Bramel had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. unless the air can circulate freely underneath it.

"If I stop sweating suddenly, or if I act strangely, breathe short and quick, or if my ears droop, get me into the shade at once, remove harness and bridle, wash out my mouth, sponge me all over, shower my legs, and give me two ounces of sweet spirits of ammonia, or two ounces of sweet spirits of nitre in a pint of water, or a pint of warm coffee. Cool my head at once, using cold water or if necessary chopped ice wrapped in a cloth.

"A warm night in a narrow stall neither properly cleaned nor bedded unfits me for work.

"Turning the hose on me is too risky a thing to do unless you are looking for a sick horse. Spraying the legs and feet when I am not too warm on a hot day would be agreeable.

"Please sponge out my eyes and nose and dock when I come in tired and dusty at night with clean cool water, and also sponge me under the collar and saddle of the harness."

Thrashing Season Begins

(Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat)
Farmers began thrashing wheat and rye last week. The yield falls short of the average but the grain is of a superior quality. Every grain and stalk should be saved. With both cereals selling above $2 per bushel, where will the prices soar should the speculators in the grain pits get control of the country's stores?

Price Advance

Competitors have circulated a report that the Ford has advanced $100.00. This is emphatically untrue and is done merely to help them sell an inferior car for more money. However, I am expecting every day to receive notice to advance the price. All orders are being taken with the privilege of cancellation if price advances. The company has notified me to mail all orders the same day they are placed. It is my opinion that all orders will be filled at present prices if orders are placed at once, but you should not delay the matter a single day. Place your order today and play "safety first."

The Officer's Dignity is Expressed in His Uniform

That quality which the whole world has learned to admire in the American Army Officer, is eloquently expressed in the care and skill with which uniforms are tailored by THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER.

They are made to U. S. Government specifications, but made with a half-a-breadth precision that commonplace tailoring doesn't know. It takes thorough training to execute them as these are executed.

JOLLY CROWD

From Maysville Enlivened Things at Ruggles Wednesday — New Cottages Will Be Built Before Next Year—Other Notes.

Ruggles Campgrounds, August 1—The annual meeting of the Campmeeting Association took place this morning. The Association was in session from 8 till 10 and then adjourned until 1 p. m. at which time another session of one hour's length was held. Much important business relative to the future success of the campmeeting was considered. The Association elected Rev. W. H. Davenport, President; E. R. Overley, Vice President; S. K. Hunt, Secretary, and J. H. Richardson, Treasurer. Prof. C. S. Dale of Maysville and Mr. W. C. Cox of Vanceburg, were elected to membership in the Association. J. H. Richardson was re-elected Historian. Many improvements to the grounds were suggested and the Association voted unanimously for the Board of Directors to go ahead and have such improvements made before another campmeeting. It is practically assured that some new cottages will be built. Some decided changes in the order of services will also be made for next year. The affairs of the Association are in good condition and all feel encouraged that the meetings will continue their success during the future.

The Campground has been made lively today by the visit of the big crowd of Maysville people, mostly young people, the trip being planned and carried out by the Anti Cant Class of the Third Street M. E. Sunday School of which Mr. E. E. Clark is the vacation teacher. Three auto loads were in the crowd. And they sure did have one jolly time. They brought enough dinner for the whole campmeeting if they had accepted the invitation to eat with them. The following composed the crowd: Mrs. D. C. Knight, Mrs. Geo. H. Traxel, Mrs. S. K. Hunt, Mrs. J. Albert Hill, Mrs. J. K. Brubaker, Misses Fannie and Frances Thomas, Maude Ella and Bessie Brubaker, Corinna Snye, Helen and Freda Nauman, Frances Snapp, Garnet Frederick, Mabel Todd, Alice Knight, Violet Muse, Louise Hunsicker, Helen Whittington, Miss Florence Wilson and guest, Miss Julia Grant, of Cincinnati, Maggie Bauer and Messrs. E. E. Clark, Fred Cablish, J. Albert Hill, Royd K. Muse and Clarence W. Bleshop.

Among the crowd was a number of the choir from the Third Street M. E.

Church and they helped in the chorus work during their stay. Fred Cablish had quite a streak of automobile luck on his way out today with part of the Maysville crowd. Two blow-outs with other exasperating difficulties delayed him about two hours and a half. But Fred got in time to do some tall electioneering just the same. You can't lose Fred.

Miss Wilson who is meeting with such deserved success with the children, insists that she has the cutest bunch of little folks to be found anywhere. One of the young hopefuls said to her today "You must be kin to President Wilson; you look so much like him."

Rev. H. D. Cooper of Russell, the little preacher with a big voice, arrived this afternoon. He is the "little Zachary" of the Kentucky Conference. But look out for him when he turns that big voice loose on the camp.

Mr. H. Carr Politt came into camp today and will remain over night. Roy Tully was a visitor in camp for awhile this afternoon.

The services. Rev. G. W. Boswell of Winchester, led the morning prayer service. Rev. John Gross, the only unmarried preacher on the grounds, preached at the morning service. Of course all the girls were out to hear him. He has the making of a good preacher. Rev. E. R. Overley took charge of the young peoples' service.

He made it the best service of the kind of the campmeeting. There will be some changes in these services. The young people feel that if this is their service they want it to be a real young peoples' service. Recognizing this Rev. Overley put one over that was a delight to all who were there. The Maysville crowd was especially pleased that they got to hear their former beloved pastor.

Rev. Cooper was the evening preacher. Another large congregation was present. The sermon was on "The Judgment." It was an impressive service. The Maysville quartet sang "The Great Judgment Morning," and Rev. Ragan sang a solo, "The Heart That Was Broken For Me."

HELP! HELP! Washington, August 2 — The heat wave in the east, broken tonight by scattered showers, shows slight probability of an imminent recurrence, according to the experts of the weather bureau. No immediate relief is promised, however, for the west, while a climb in the mercury is expected in the Ohio and Mississippi valley. High temperatures continued late today throughout the east. Boston and Baltimore reported 98 and New York, Philadelphia and Washington, 96.

Mr. William Moore and wife and Mrs. Hattie Rose Celsor of Newcastle, Ind., motored to this city Wednesday to visit Mrs. Ida Carpenter and other relatives and friends. From here they will go to Mt. Carmel to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cassidy of Newcastle, Ind., came in Wednesday to visit the latter's father, Mr. Charles Bartlett. They left Thursday for Mt. Carmel to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Claude Watkins and children returned home last night from a visit at Georgetown, Ky. They were accompanied home by Mrs. R. H. Wolf.

Mrs. James Stewart of West Third street will leave Thursday for a visit to her son, Mr. Harry Stewart, in Cincinnati.

DIES OF INJURIES

Ashland, Ky., August 1—Miss Ella McPhillips, telegraph operator at Killgore, Boyd county, for the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad for twenty-nine years, is dead, from injuries she suffered in falling from a freight car. She was about 50 years old, and is said to own real estate in Ashland worth $15,000. She was very eccentric, but bright and witty, and a general favorite with the railroad people. She was born in Ireland and a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

She leaves a sister in Ireland; a brother in Cincinnati, and an aged aunt who made her home with her.

WORK STARTED ON NEW GOVERNMENT DAM

Work has been started at Chillicothe, Ohio, on the new Government dam to cost $1,300,000. Fifteen acres of land to be used for this purpose have been purchased. The appropriation for this dam was made five years ago, and the work now in progress will continue until the dam is completed, which is estimated in about five years. Two shifts of men will be kept on the job, making day and night work for the crews.

MANAGER OF ELECTRIC SHOP TO LEAVE MAYSVILLE

Mr. C. M. Ratcliff, who has for some time been manager of the Electric Shop of the Electric Light Company here, will leave within the next few weeks with his family for San Francisco, Cal., to make his future home. During his stay in this city Mr. Ratcliff has made many friends, who will be sorry to hear that he is to leave.

Georgetown (Ohio) News-Democrat: "Mrs. Lou Parker and children came over from Maysville to join her husband Saturday, to attend the big chautauqua and inspect their handsome new home on North Main street now in the course of construction."

It will not be necessary for any Republicans to vote in the primary next Saturday as there is no opposition to any of the candidates for office and all Republicans are therefore already nominated by virtue of that fact.

At the recent special session of the Legislature of Kentucky a law was passed levying a tax of one-tenth of one per cent on the individual deposits of banks and providing that the bank may charge the tax to the depositors.

We take this means of notifying the public that out of its own funds and therefore all money deposited in this bank will be free from all State, County and City Taxes.

This Bank Will Pay This Tax for Its Depositors

Your money in this bank, on and after September 1, 1917, will be tax free, but will be subject to a tax of 40 cents on each $100, if you keep it at home.

We will continue to pay interest at the rate of 3 Per Cent. in our Savings Department.
